In Memoriam
Travis Lathron Gibson, D.D.S.

Class of 1991

1987 Graduate

Elizabeth City State University

Soul Gone Home

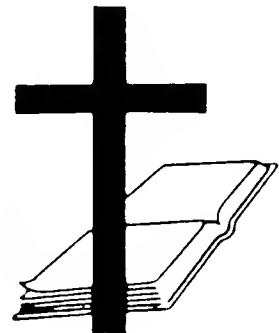

The unexpected death of Dr. Gibson, early in October 1991, has saddened all who knew him. A graduate in the class of 1991, he was planning to practice general dentistry with Ronald Tucker, D.D.S. in Fayetteville, North Carolina.

Dr. Gibson was born on December 31, 1964, the son of Billy and Sandra Whidbee Gibson, of Elizabeth City, North Carolina. He attended Elizabeth City State University. At the University he was a member of Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, Inc.; Health Careers Organization; Society of Physics; Beta, Beta Biological Honor Society and Alpha Kappa Mu Honor Society.

He received the American College of Prosthodontics Award while a student at Meharry and was a volunteer for the Inroads Summer Program in Nashville, Tennessee. Dr. Gibson belonged to the Ewell-Neil Dental Society and the Student National Dental Association.

He was a dedicated member of Poole's Grove Baptist Church, Woodville, North Carolina.

Sharing his loss are his parents; a sister, Miss Felicia Gibson, Oxon Hill, Maryland; two grandmothers, Mrs. Marie Gibson and Mrs. Mattie Whidbee, both of Elizabeth City, North Carolina; other relatives and friends.

Greeting From The Jenkins Family

Elizabeth City State University

ELIZABETH CITY, NORTH CAROLINA 27907

OFFICE OF THE CHANCELLOR
(919) 335-2130

Dear Class of 1992

Congratulations! You have successfully reached another major milestone in your lives. Acquiring your undergraduate education among other things, required a great deal of determination and tenacity. We are very proud of you. Your class, the graduating Class of 1992, is the first class to graduate as our University enters the first year of its second Centennial.

As we enter this new era, the challenges facing the University and you are as great today, as they were for the founders of this University and the first graduates. You too, have been prepared to be a viable competitive force. To do justice to this University and to your fellow alumni, you must take what you have learned and continue to build upon it. You must continue to make good decisions, decisions that will allow you to provide both spirited and financial support to the "Star in the Northeast," Elizabeth City State University. For this University to maintain its position as a strong and progressive University and to appropriately respond to the challenges of the next decade, will require your involvement, too. Please stay in contact with us; we care about you, our 1992 Viking graduates.

Faleese and I, along with the faculty and staff, wish for you continued success in making good choices in every facet of your lives.

Respectfully yours,

Jimmy R. Jenkins

A TRIBUTE TO ELIZABETH CITY STATE UNIVERSITY

By: Cathy Thomas

To thee dear E.C.S.U.
In the past your praises have been few.
You took the derogatory statements
And turned them into GOLD.
Now we can hold our heads up high
Because you were so proud and bold.

You have paid the price through Your toils and struggles.
Now it's time for you to rejoice
We are behind you one-hundred percent
With a MIGHTY VIKING VOICE.

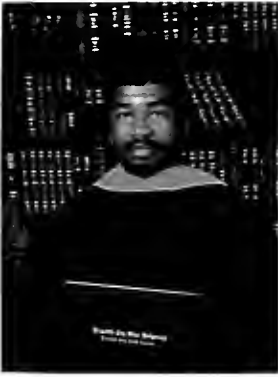

As we approach our centennial year,
We have dismissed all of our fears.
We put our hearts, minds, and trust
In you, because you have accomplished
What you set out to do.

So now we'll renew the words
Of our dear Alma Mater with praise:

Hail to thy lovely halls
ECSU
We'll hear when duty calls
ECSU
Faithful and ever true
We'll be to you
For in our hearts we'll still love thee
ECSU.

I SAID A PRAYER FOR YOU TODAY

I said a prayer for you today
And know God must of heard
I felt the answer in my heart
Although he spoke no word!
I didn't ask for wealth or fame
"I knew you wouldn't mind —"
I asked him to send treasures of a far more lasting kind!
I asked that he'd be near you
At the start of each new day
To grant you health and blessings
And friends to share your way!
I asked for happiness for you
In all things great and small
But it was for His loving care
I prayed the most of all!

Reflections

i threw my soul into the universe hoping to receive pity from somewhere:
thought my rescue would come along but, my soul got lost somewhere out there.

i dare not take that step again:
it was the step of an infant, blind.
finding one's place in the universe asks for far too much time.

so i cast my soul into the ocean where the waves prance and roll.
upon the shore i did wait and my soul became bait as the ocean did swallow it whole.

a mistake of that nature nearly caused failure — i dare not make it twice the bottomlessness of the great abyss did freeze my soul colder than ice.

i flung my soul onto the earth and it became meat for man and beast and i dashed into the midst of them all disgusted — they thought it a feast.

so i threw my soul into the sky hoping my chore would be done for me and with lightening speed it soared downward and fell — just before me.

so i held my soul in the palms of my hands and screamed. "where is my place?"
and i looked into my palms and there i found the reflection of my face.

so i know now yes, now i know of where i could be.
my place and the future of my soul is in and is up to me.

FOR FUN

A Friend

A friend is a person that you can rely on.

In bad times they help you remain strong.
when burdens overwhelm your soul.

They come to your aid and help shed the load.

If there is jealousy, envy, or hatred in a friend.

It would be best to bring that friendship to an end.

When you are in college a true friend can be hard to find.

People will use you and you may think they are being kind.

A friend is a confidant and not someone that will do you harm.

You can tell them a secret,
and never feel that it's wrong.

It is good to have a friend in college.

They help you adjust and feel comfortable,
when gaining precious knowledge.

COMMON GROUND

By: Lynn Morris

There is a fence that divides us all.
Though we live on common ground.
We will travel the same road.
Only choosing different paths.
Our language is the same,
Just used with different words.
Our minds separate us most of all.
We think and interpret in different ways,
But we live on common ground.

Murray, R.H. Ogle, and V.W. Tandy. Since then, over 100,000 men have passed through our ranks in chapters throughout the U.S. and abroad. Our fraternity consists of such notable brothers as Andrew Young, Thurgood Marshall, Ebony/Jet Publisher, John H. Johnson, and late brothers Martin Luther King, Jr., Jesse Owens, and Duke Ellington. Some of our national projects include the Boy Scouts, Teen Pregnancy, Education, and Voter Registration.

Sigma Gamma Rho Sorority, Inc. was founded November 12, 1822. The first chapter was organized at Butler University in Indianapolis, Indiana by seven school teachers: Nannie Mae G. Johnson, Mary Lou Little, Vivian White Maybury, Bessie Martin, Cubena McCure, Hattie Mae Redford, and Dorothy Whiteside. Sigma Gamma Rho Sorority, Inc. is a nonprofit collegiate sorority dedicated to the encouragement and promotion of high scholastic attainment, community service and improvement of the quality of our lives and the society in which we live. Its slogan, "Greater Service, Greater Progress", serves as a foundation for its objectives and activities. The sorority also stresses "Quality Not Quantity."

The sorority's pledge club is called the Aurora Pledge Club. As an Aurora, one learns that the fundamental purpose of the sorority is achievement.

On Thursday, May 7, 1992, Robert L. Vaughan was inducted in the North Carolina Sports Hall of Fame. Elizabeth City State University basketball teams under Bobby's Leadership evolved into the keystone member of the CIAA, capturing five CIAA Divisional Championships and two CIAA tournament crowns in the twenty-seven seasons which followed. During his 33 year tenure, Bobby Vaughn's Elizabeth City State University Basketball Squads amassed 502 NCAA certified victories. His teams advanced to the national playoffs seven times, winning three district championships in the NAIA, advancing to the NAIA National Championship final four times, and winning the NCAA Division II South Atlantic Championship once, advancing to the final eight. Vaughn supervised construction of a modern multi-use Athletic and Physical Education Center which bears his name. He is one of the three college coaches in North Carolina to win 500 games, and to have a building named in his honor while still living. Coach Robert L. Vaughn we congratulate you.

1922-1992

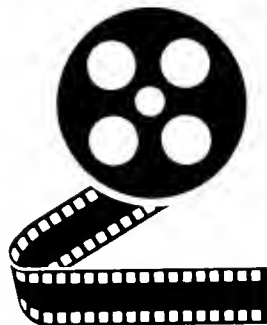

Though born in Ithaca, New York, Alex Haley, the retired U.S. Coast Guard cook turned writer, claimed Tennessee as home. It was there in the small town of Henning that his maternal grandmother, Cynthia Murray Palmer, beguiled young Alex with stories of an African ancestor who called a banjo "ko" and a river "Kamby bolongo."

Sixteen years ago Alex Haley regaled audiences with stories of his 12-year odyssey across three continents. That odyssey produced Roots: The Saga of an American Family, an amazing book that garnered Haley a special Pulitzer prize and caused many African-Americans to swell with pride. Greater glory came with the Roots TV miniseries, which was reportedly watched by 130 million people and catapulted Alex Haley to international fame.

Alex Haley was a national treasure, and his importance to the world, and to African-Americans in particular, was perhaps best expressed by Haley himself when, in the introduction to Roots, he wrote that in Africa they say that "when a griot dies, it is as if a library has burned to the ground."

Alex Haley, our griot, has died; we mourn his passing and shall forever honor his memory.
